

LOCAL TIPS

Catch a literary talk at a cozy bookshop

As one of the few places with many English language books on sale, Massolit Books & Café is a particular favorite of English speakers in Kraków. Not only that, there are always incredible baked products from their satellite bakery just down the street, as well as good coffee, and an all-around cozy, homey atmosphere. In the front room is a sizable collection of classic and modern literature from all over the world. Indeed, the shop's name is taken from a famous Russian work "Master and

Catch a literary talk at a cozy bookshop

In addition to its an extensive collection of fiction and non-fiction titles, the back room is also where many evening events are hosted. Past events include short story readings from local writers, cultural discussions on Poland, fashion, politics, Jewish culture, linguistics, and Polish literature. The events are in English and free to attend, although it's a good idea to grab a piece of cake or a drink while you're there. The intimate setting and one-off discussions are a unique experience in Kraków that give you a different perspective from what you'll get out of most tourist activities. Check their Facebook page to keep up with the latest events.

SELF-GUIDED INDOORS

Answers from the local expert

When is the best time to visit?

Mornings, afternoons, and evenings.

How much does it cost?

It's free.

Do you have any tips?

Try their selection of cakes and baked goods

While the bookshop has its own website, follow their Facebook page for the latest events

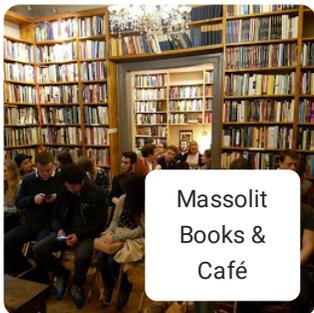

Is there an official website?

Yes, you can visit www.facebook.com

Massolit Books & Café

Massolit Books & Café

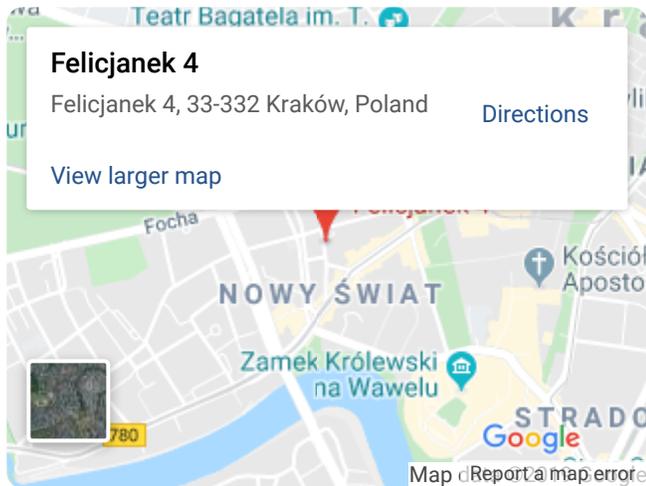

Massolit Books & Café

Raphaël Labbé/CC BY 2.0

Location

About the local expert

Local recommendation from

Amy Hornsby

Amy is a travel and content writer currently living life as a digital nomad. She enjoys slow travelling via house-sitting and you can usually find her at a fresh food market, an independent bookshop, on her yoga mat, or out on a walk with a furry friend.

Related interests

State of the arts

Similar local tips

Sing karaoke

Drink riverside

Catch some

Take photo of a

with locals in a...

at a former...

culture in the...

Neo-Gothic...

---

Touring Bird ▲

