

LOCAL TIPS

Drink riverside at a former Soviet hotel

Once a grey and block-like Soviet hotel, this riverside building has kept its communist-style exterior, which now serves as a retro facade for one of the coolest bars in town. While the rest of the building remains empty and abandoned, the ground floor is alive with locals. Forum Przechowanie becomes a popular spot in the summer months, with hundreds of people spilling out onto the graveled front, pulling up deckchairs, crates, sun-loungers, and beanbags to lounge on and enjoy the view of the river. Take a refreshing pit-stop with a drink, stay a while longer, and sample some of the burgers, sandwiches, and pizzas. Or check out the nighttime scene for DJ sets and live music.

SELF-GUIDED

Answers from the local expert

When is the best time to visit?

Afternoons, evenings, and nights.

Best visited in warmer months so you can enjoy the view and outdoor atmosphere.

How much does it cost?

About PLN5 - PLN30.

Do you have any tips?

Aim for sunset in the summer and early autumn months to watch the sun go down over the river

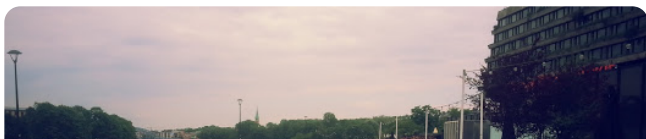

Is there an official website?

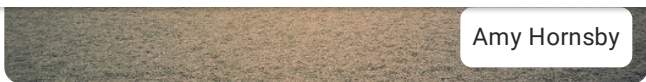

Yes, you can visit www.forumprzestrzenie.com

Amy Hornsby

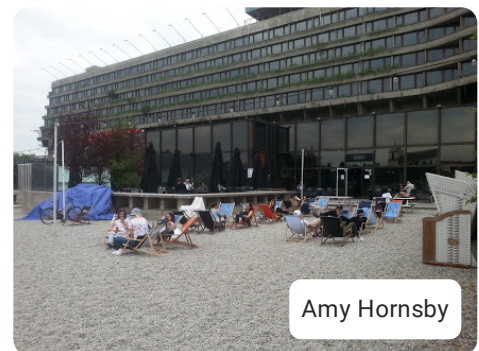

Drink riverside at a former Soviet hotel

Amy Hornsby

Location

Amy Hornsby

About the local expert

Local recommendation from

Amy Hornsby

Amy is a travel and content writer currently living life as a digital nomad. She enjoys slow travelling via house-sitting and you can usually find her at a fresh food market, an independent bookshop, on her yoga mat, or out on a walk with a furry friend.

Related interests

I like to party

Similar local tips

Sing karaoke with locals in a...

Catch some culture in the...

See iconic Polish
artwork for free

Take photo of a Neo-Gothic...

Touring Bird ▲

