

Kraków

LOCAL TIPS

Relax in a modernized 19th-c. park

Following a renovation in 2018, the circa-1885 Park Krakowski has been given a new lease on life, and offers a slice of solace not far from the busy city center. Hop off at tram stop Plac Inwalidów to see the hundreds of new plants and trees that bring the park to life with color. Its central pond featuring an islanded willow tree has been upgraded and is a popular home to many ducks, and its small waterfall adds to the sounds and atmosphere of the park. You'll find people walking, jogging, blading, and cycling up and down the fresh new walkways, and there are also secluded stretches of grass for lazing about, reading, practicing yoga, or enjoying an ice cream. Visit on an evening and you'll see local elders enjoying games of chess at the games tables, and all day long there are kids and families taking advantage of the large and enviable playground and its wooden structures, including a climbing wall.

SELF-GUIDED    LESS THAN AN HOUR

Answers from the local expert

When is the best time to visit?

Mornings, afternoons, and evenings.

Open 24/7 and can be enjoyed all year round, although best when the weather is warm

How much does it cost?

It's free.

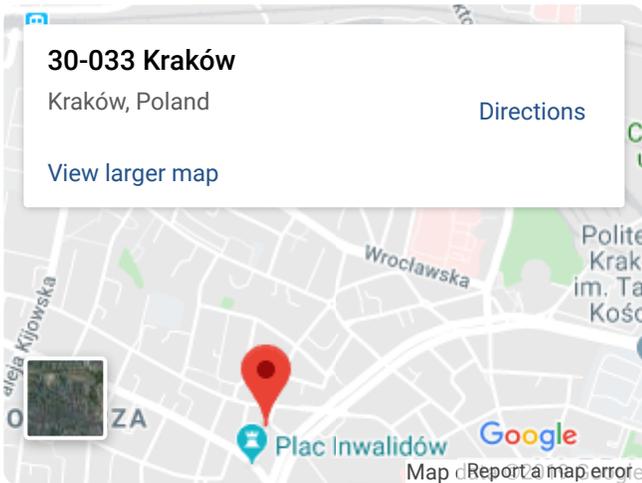

Do you have any tips?

By public transport, get the tram to Plac Inwalidów

Location

About the local expert

Local recommendation from

Amy Hornsby

Amy is a travel and content writer currently living life as a digital nomad. She enjoys slow travelling via house-sitting and you can usually find her at a fresh food market, an independent bookshop, on her yoga mat, or out on a walk with a furry friend.

---

Similar local tips

Sing karaoke with locals in a...

Drink riverside
at a former...

Catch some culture in the...

Take photo of a Neo-Gothic...

